

Orders

New Order Forms

Orders

New order form:

Client: Dropdown menu with the client name from the client table
Pick up or delivery? check box
Day to delivery
Time to delivery
Address to delivery (from the forms or a new one)

Order items:
(Plus button to add the items from the product table) needs an extra column that add the observation if the product needs some adaptation or not.

Total price of the order

New Order

Orders

New Order Forms

Orders

Order Detailed

Date range to get the orders of this range period defined

Orders:
Page to show the table from orders

id_order, id_cleint, status, price, order_date, delivery, delivery_date, delivery_time, delivery_address, created_at

Orders

New Order Forms

Orders

Order detailed

Production

Drop down menu to get the id_order

Order_Products:
Page that show the table from Order_Products.

id, id_order, id_product, quantity, unit_price, observation, created_at

[New Order
Forms](#)OrdersProductionProduction

Date range to get the orders of this range
period defined

I need to get the information from a time range, that are the total amount of product that I need to cook in an specific time range and it's specification. Which means, I need to get the informatiom queried from my table order and order_products together in a defined time range.